BETHEL CHILDREN'S DANCE THEATRE TO PRESENT "ALICE IN WONDERLAND"

The Children's Dance Theatre of Bethel, through song, dance and pantomime, will present as their spring recital Lewis Carroll's enchanting story, "Alice in Wonderland". A matinee performance will be held on Friday, June 4, at 4 p. m., and an evening show on Saturday, June 5, at 7:30 p. m., both at the Telstar Regional High School auditorium.

Director and choreographer is Mrs. Susan Farrar, a member of the Maine Dance Teachers Association and a board member for the Professional Dance Teachers of New England. Her 85 students range in ages from four to 18; and the dance numbers will include tap, toe, jazz, and acrobatic. Colorful costumes under theater lighting will add to the delight of this "way, out" comedy. Nonsense is the keynote and the children let their imaginations run wild making this a delightful show to be in and, hopefully, to watch.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

Thursday and Friday of last week Road Foreman Robert Davis and I traveled to Rockland and Van Buren to inspect equipment the State is going to dispose of. They now have a policy of allowing municipalities to make offers on surplus equipment prior to letting it out to bid. Experience has proven the bidding procedure, for the most part, benefits dealers who buy at a minimum price and resell at a profit. The new method gives a municipality an opportunity to make an offer with the chance to negotiate if the offer is not satisfactory. We are told the price range expected or any given piece of equipment at the time it is available.

We are interested in a backhoe and loader combination if it can be purchased at a price we can justify. Equipment such as this is not something we use regularly, therefore, we know we cannot purchase a new one. At the same time, we know the problems that can arise with used equipment. We made an offer for one located in Van Buren which we felt was in good condition.

The donated food will be distributed at the Fire Station until further notice.

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a two-story shavings and storage building at the L. E. Davis Lumber Co., on Cross Street early Monday evening. The Bethel Fire Department responded to an alarm sounded shortly after 6 o'clock. Reported loss was estimated at about $10,000 by Richard Davis of the local concern.

Carried by a brisk breeze, sparks from the blaze started several small grass fires in the Railroad Street area. Other buildings located adjacent to the destroyed structure were hosed down during the fire.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:

I would like to comment on the wonderful Art Festival that our students of Telstar under the direction of Marilyn Thayer presented on the Common Saturday. I happened to be around the past few weeks in and out of the art room and saw the hustle and bustle taking place and all the excitement and anticipation. There was some beautiful work exhibited which represented a year's labor on the part of students and teachers.

The Drama Dept. under the direction of Helen Barry presented an original play written by one of our own Telstar students, Tom Sauter, who is graduating this year as a third year student. It was very interesting and provocative. It came in second in the one act play contest a couple of weeks ago in the state.

While walking around the Common towards the end of the day one of the students mentioned regretfully that so few people attended. Hopefully another year will bring more people out to see the talent in our school.

COUNCIL COMMENTS

As our new Student Council Public Relations Chairman, I only hope that Betsy Stowell and I do as well as our predecessors, Paula Wight and Dave Holt.

The Student Council is proud and pleased to report that the School Board has agreed to have a new council member as an "ex-officio" member for the next school year.

Merry Robertson, an experienced senior member of the council, will take John Trivard's place next year. We feel that this is a big step in the effort for better relations between the School Board and the students.

A combined French and German class picnic to Reid State Park, Monday, May 24, resulted in a lot of fun and a lot of cases of sunburn!

Our softball and baseball teams are really doing well, so let's go to the games and cheer them on!

We also wish to thank the public for helping to make the Art Festival a success. - Roberta Croteau

"E. S. P." From the Moon

During the Apollo 14 moon mission there was a strange experiment going on between Edgar Mitchell and Olaf Jonsson, an experimenter of E. S. P. Mitchell, during his rest periods in the spare capsule, was supposed to try to transfer his thoughts to his experimenter in the E. S. P. tests. Jonsson

During these periods, Mr. Jonsson said that perception of Mr. Mitchell's thoughts was very clear at some times but at other times it was somewhat distorted.

In the light of this experiment Mr. Jonsson and Mr. Mitchell haven't proved that E. S. P. can travel through space or that it can't.

WOODSTOCK ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

A Trip to TV Land

On Friday, May 14, Mrs. Parkers second grade class and chaperones went on a field trip to the Portland Spring television station. All enjoyed and learned several interesting things about television pictures and how they are transmitted. The children saw themselves on a colored and a black and white television monitor. Everything seemed quite complicated as the station crew went about their routine job of bringing us the news, weather, and various other television programs.

Our guide was most helpful in answering our questions. Many of the questions asked were about the men who have to make the trip up to the summit of Mt. Washington where much of the transmitting machinery is located.

On the ride home we stopped at Goodwin's for an ice cream, and at Snow Falls for a picnic lunch. As a remembrance of their trip to the studio, the class received a large "totale roll" filled with candy, and also several pieces of video tape.

Special thanks go to the staff at the television station and also chaperones for making the trip so successful.

Mrs. Parker would also like to thank her class for acting like grown-up ladies and gentlemen.

A Trip to the Greenhouse

On Friday morning, May 21, 1971 at 8:30 a.m. the Woodstock Elementary's 4th grade went for a visit to Lowe's Florist in South Paris. The chaperones were Mrs. Irene Mills and Mrs. Ruby Hathaway, Mrs. Tripp and Mrs. Haskell went also.

The children saw many flowers such as petunias and gladioli.

The children received petunias and Mrs. Haskell, the children's teacher, received gladioli for them to dissect.

They saw carnations, roses and snapdragons in the cold storage case.

They also saw some zinnias and pansies.

The children went to Goodwin's Dairy and had an ice cream. — Brenda Cushing.

L. L. Brown, Corres.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce E. Smith and family were camping in Mason during the holiday week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham Bachelder, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stearns, Mrs. Wayne Beals, Laurie and Eric Beals, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stearns and Scottie spent Sunday at the Bachelder lot on Keewaydin Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Brown and Diana Sayward were in Wilton, Saturday.

"Dot" Brown purchased a parcel of land recently from Otis Cobb which was conveyed to June and Graham Bachelder. The Bachelders are clearing out a site on the property they received from the Don Browns where they will place a mobile home.

June Bachelder and Dot Brown attended the funeral of Sarah Clark last week in Fryeburg and called on a cousin, Emily Leavitt at Hicks nursing home.

Among the week end callers at Dot Browns were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Lord, Mrs. Wayne Beals, Laurie and Eric Beals, Walter Lord, Mrs. Frank Pike, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bachelder, Mr. and Mrs. Don Brown, Diana Sayward, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce E. Smith. Other recent callers were Marion Pike, Kay O'Leary, Albert Rice, Harry Leavitt, Fred Wentworth, Bob Lownd of Oregon, Bertrand Rugg, N. Cummings, Clayton York and Frank Parsons.

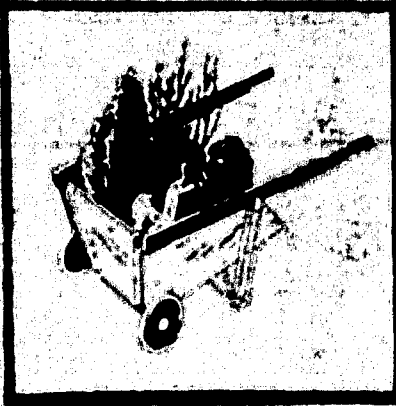

Evelyn Brown has spent much time at "Homestead Acres", New Vineyard, assisting her mother in the home which has been sold.

Undoubtedly Mrs. Cummings will miss the beautiful home of her birthplace which she has cherished through the many years. The church in the nearby village where she played the organ each Sunday, the community with true and loyal friends and neighbors will always linger in her memory.

It is sincerely wished that this most remarkable person of 90 years (young) will enjoy contentment and

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Collette Morgan, Corres. —
On an afternoon when nothing broke the silence of the warm and fragrant air but the snatches of bird melodies, Ruth and I took an old road to some old places. The tracks made by wagon wheels years ago were symbols of an era that the march of time conceals.

We took our time and the shady road with a slight breeze felt good while the jewels of nature were scattered along our way.

Just once, about forty years in the past, had I traveled this road. Ruth pointed out to me the places where once her uncle lived so many years ago and she spoke of others who had lived there. Now all that remained was the old cellar wall, a well, and a large spreading maple tree.

Moving on now, a high center rose between the well-worn tracks where once horses pranced or trod along as wheels upheld their heavy packs. We came next to the Francis Cole place. I felt that I knew it and had been here before because Clyde had spent so much time there in those days when simple joys brought thrills, like trails that led into distant hills. He and his friend, Everett, fished near by with an alder pole and line and a bait filled can. They lived within a magic realm where cares were unknown. The long lanes held adventure as the morning pastures were a shawl of fog. They always heard the first clear notes of the feathered vocalist, I presume at times their thoughts fly backwards and their memory bows, as they think about the childish chore of bringing in the cows.

He has told me of the golden brown of fields before the harvest days and the green of the pasture where the cattle were left to graze.

If he returned now he'd miss the long paths he used to roam but most of all he'd miss those "cart wheel" molasses cookies and the friendship of this boyhood country home.

Something is lost which one cannot know again; that peaceful living in the lives of men.

The house still stands with its gorgeous maple drinking the sun and rains, spreading its flaming glory in fall while its leaves ride the autumn winds.

Any country road is jubilant and we left this house against the green hills strength and walked on to the Tammunen place.

The first thing here that caught our eyes was the giant forsythia bush standing at least six feet high and spreading out and out. It was more decorative than any I had ever seen. Its drooping yellow rays were surrounded by bushes but it had held its place over all these years while a so-green pine in the background guarded its gold.

Things have changed since—well, just a few short years ago. The yard once clear is now grown in and the lilacs stood tall looking down on memories. In other years the house now gone wore her age becomingly although she didn't choose the modern style of dress. The door steps told of one entrance to her promenade green walls decorated with white "collar and cuffs" while a dark roof-bonnet was worn above. She was enriched with dainty frills of Queen-Anne's lace or morning glories I'm sure, as she sat among the peaceful bleedings of a sun-low sky and silver beads of morning or evening dew. For many years she battled against time, a rare jewel hidden away among the maples and sage monarchs of the years.

I imagined that I could hear from within some of the rhythmic, comforting homey sounds; the crackling fire with the occasional plunk of wood dropping in the grate, or that same grate getting a shake in early morning, the tick of the clock or the cathedral sounding chiming as it struck the hour, the brushing sound of a broom, eggs being beaten, bubble of the coffee pot, the r-rub-rub on the corrugation of a wash board and the crunching turning of the ice cream freezer; all old sounds now gone.

So we wandered back the country road while memories filled our minds of yesteryears and friendly places which we were now leaving behind.

MRS. PERSIS GALLANT

Persis Alice Gallant, died Sunday night, May 30, 1971, at Rumford Community Hospital following a long illness.

She was born in Andover, Jan. 23, 1897, the daughter of William and Grace Holmes. Mrs. Gallant was a member of the Mount Allen A. L. Auxiliary, Bethel.

Surviving are her husband, Theodore Gallant, a son, Stanley, three daughters, Mrs. Margaret Belanger and Mrs. Marie Gann, all of Bethel, and Mrs. Louella Gennarilla, Portland. There are 10 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, June 2 at 2 p. m. from the Greenwood Funeral Home with Rev. Fred Bailey officiating. Burial at Woodlawn Cemetery, Bethel.

A person who friend and valiant neighbor has left us and we shall miss her. She was a good wife, a loving mother and grandmother, and a cordial neighbor. Surely Spring Street will not be the same without Alice working around her immaculate home and well kept garden.

When all health forced her to leave her activities she was unhappy with the thought she liked to be busy.

She has been tenderly cared for by her loving family and our sympathy is with them in their bereavement and loss.

They never quite leave us, the ones who have gone.

Watch our minds to the Sunshine Above.

A thousand fond memories are holding them here.

To the place they blessed with their love.

MRS. LUCY BENNETT

Mrs. Lucy J. Bennett died unexpectedly at her home on the Howe Hill Road, Locke Mills, Sunday, May 30, 1971.

She was born at Bethel, Nov. 23, 1894, daughter of Edward and Mary Thomas Chase. She received her education in Bethel schools and was married to Frank Willard Bennett, April 4, 1917.

Survivors include her husband of Locke Mills; three brothers, Robert Chase Norton, Mrs. V. L. Edward Chase, Locke Mills, and Harry Chase Hanson.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the I. W. Andrews and Son Funeral Home, South Woodstock. Rev. Leonard Hanson officiated. Interment was at Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Locke Mills.

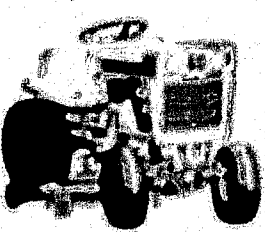

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Guy L. Merrill
who passed away June 2, 1969
They say time heals all wounds and helps one to forget.
But, to her, time has only proved
how much we miss you yet
Always a dear heartache
Many a silent tear.
But always a beautiful memory
Of one we loved so dear.
Your memory is a keepsake
From which we will never part.
Though God has you in His keeping
We will have you in our heart.
